STATE ENTERPRISES MUST AUTHORIZE ELECTRIC INSTALLATIONS

ALL ILLEGAL INSTALLATIONS TO BE DISCONNECTED -- Narodno Delo, No 1693, 1 Feb 50

According to the order of the Ministry of Electrification and Improvements, published in the State Herald, No 236, 12 December 1949, and according to Section 1 of the Law on the Power Industry, published in the State Herald, No 71, 27 February 1948, the right to construct any type of electric installation is restricted exclusively to the ministry, the Power Association organization, or to persons having special authorization from the ministry.

Electric installations effected without authorization from the Power Association cannot be put in use or connected to the system.

All installations which have been illegally projected or executed will be disconnected and the electricians responsible will be indicted for breaking the law.

THERMAL POWER PLANT RENAMED -- Izgrev, No 1586, 25 Nov 49

At the extraordinary session of the Sofia People's Soviet, held on 24 November, the Committee for Naming Projects of National and Social Importance approved a motion to change the name of the Nadezhda thermal electric power plant to I. V. Stalin.

The power plant was built with substantial aid from the USSR and from Stalin, personally. The change of name was approved in writing by the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party.
